How did I get to be a senior so soon?
Why, it seems only yesterday I walked through the doors of Canton South High school as a shy, frightened sophomore. Experiencing the fears, joys and tears . . . That fuzzy feeling of excitement mixed with dread.

Now I am a junior . . . A jolly junior concerned with ballgames and prom . . . Not a single day goes by without a smile or laugh from a friend who understands my moods.

I'll always remember my mixed feelings upon returning as a senior . . . Happy because I finally reached the end of my twelve year climb, but sad . . . I was approaching each event with "that last time" feeling . . . Close friends becoming closer . . . These moments have been captured for all to remember between the pages of our 1978 Moderian. Yes . . . We'll always remember . . . Canton South 1978.

Ageless
Like pages in a book
We turn a new day
  Like every new chapter
  We find a new way.

We — like those words
Of each yellowed page
  Will all wither and fade.
  With each passing age.

A book maybe classic
And remain ever timeless.
  But we must grow old
  And remain ever rhymeless.

PENTON

I'll always remember . . .

Margery Molnar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Molnar, is the Class of 1978 Outstanding Senior Girl.

Here's one thing I'd like to know,
Why do you cram us students so?
We are in a difficult phase,
Still you expect us to get all A's,
In all the subjects that are required.
There are only two desired.
We have nine periods in a day,
But still homework at fullest sway.
That's the thing I want to know,
Why do you cram us students so?

ANNUAL PANIC
Twas the day before deadline
And all was not right,
Not a creature was stirring,
Not even a mite.
We editors screamed
At the top of our lungs,
"George! Dear George!"
What can be done?
We can't find the pictures,
The photographers are gone,
The dark room is flooded —
This just can't go on!"
Late into the night
We worked (until day),
Got the annual finished,
And sent it away.

Our Family Style Dinner, enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McConnell, is one of our most unique menu selections, duplicated by no one, coast to coast.
It's all here, at the Desert Inn, excellent food, fine cocktails, relaxing atmosphere . . . Nice people like you. That's what our restaurant business is all about!

We may live without poetry, music, and art;
We may live without conscience, and live without heart;
We may live without friends; we may live without books;
But civilized man cannot live without cooks.

He may live without books — What is knowledge but grieving?
He may live without hope — What is hope but deceiving?
He may live without love — What is passion but pining?
But where is the man who can live without dining?
